“Parthenope” by Sorrentino

A Film Screening + Discussion

Join us for a screening of Parthenope, Paolo Sorrentino’s latest film — a poetic exploration of youth, beauty, and freedom. For the first time, Sorrentino places a female protagonist at the centre, inviting us to reflect on the search for meaning in a world shaped by external influences. Sorrentino is best known for The Great Beauty, which won the Academy Award for Best Foreign Language Film in 2014.

“Beauty is like war: it opens doors.”

Cinema specialist Zoran Dragelj will introduce the film and join the post-screening discussion, moderated by Dr. Arianna Dagnino, Lecturer in Italian Studies at the University of British Columbia.
