“Mirabile Visione. Inferno”

"Mirabile Visione: Inferno," directed by Matteo Gagliardi, is a docufilm that explores what Dante Alighieri might perceive of our contemporary world if he were to return to life today. Viewers follow Professor Argenti and her students on a descent into Dante's Inferno as she elucidates the meanings of the supreme poet's words while retracing the same journey taken by Dante himself. Each circle of the Inferno is reinterpreted within the context of modern society, illustrating the great evils of our age, including the impacts of economic crises and the climate and environmental crises affecting the entire planet.

Mesmerizing and thought-provoking!
