in collaboration with Giulietta Roz
presents

Art & Wine: A Grand Tour through Italy

Capo Rizzuto.
Calabria

Borrutta, san Pietro di Sorres.
Sardegna

Follow Italian architect and sommelier Giulietta Roz on a Grand Tour of Italy's regional diversity through art and wine.

Get an insider's view of "Il Bel Paese" (The Beautiful Country), discover secret pearls of local art, architecture, nature and learn how to enjoy regional wines.

Each meeting - like episodes of a journey - will include a selection of wines for each region and a dedicated session of wine tasting.

Don't forget your wine glass!

Giulietta Roz is an Italian Architect and certified Sommelier, currently living in Vancouver. She brings to this course her creativity, passion, and in-depth knowledge of Italian regional cultural specificities. Her goal is for you to fall in love with Italy's artistic, natural and beauty. Her enthusiasm is bound to make this series a tasty journey for culture and wine enthusiasts alike. www.gr-architecture.com

Meetings in English will run ONLINE on Thursdays from 6.30 to 8.15 pm (PT).

October 1, 2020: Italy, young country?

Learn about regional dialects, art and history, and begin your journey with a session on wine tasting basics.

October 22, 2020: Piemonte (part 1).

The French influence. Discover the Museo Egizio and Barocco architecture. The Langhe and Roero wine regions and, of course, the Barbera grape.

November 13, 2020: Sardegna.

More than Spanish influences. Find out about archeology in Sulcis, Sardinian gastronomy, and learn about regional grape varieties.

December 3, 2020: Toscana (part 1).

Explore the land of Andrea Bocelli, his Theater of Silence, the work of architect Michelangelo... and, of course, the Sangiovese grape.
