

The Dante Alighieri Society of BC
presents

Four Evenings with Dante and his *Divine Comedy
At the roots of medieval spirituality, symbolism & imagination
A 4-episode Webinar

Dante Alighieri's Divine Comedy, the best known of all poems written in the Italian language 700 years ago, takes us on a spiritual journey from a ghastly dark forest to the blissful light of a cosmic embrace, from exile to reintegration, from wretchedness to joy.

This is a FREE EVENT

In the course of four Monday evenings, Prof. Daniela Boccassini will show us why Dante's cosmic perspective is as impelling today as ever:

1. December 7, 2020
Dante's life and his source of inspiration: Beatrice
2. December 14, 2020
The Divine Comedy: Inferno
3. December 21, 2020
The Divine Comedy: Purgatorio
4. December 28, 2020
The Divine Comedy: Paradiso

All episodes will be conducted IN ENGLISH ON ZOOM from 6.30pm to 8.00pm (PT)

No previous knowledge of Dante's poem is required
